

WWC Check: Safeguard Children Safeguard your Organisation

Because child protection is everybody's business. Because all employers, volunteer organisations and education providers have responsibilities under the Working with Children (Criminal Record Checking) Act 2004 (the Act). Because non-compliance can result in fines of $60,000 and five years imprisonment.

The Working with Children Screening Unit is conducting workshops throughout 2012 to assist organisations and individuals to comply with the Act. Workshop details below:
